With regard to the 30-day post general report filed today, December 8, 2016, we have recognized a scrivener or technical error in the Year-to-Date column and will need to reconcile those numbers in the very near future. However, the itemizations for the current reporting period all seem to be accurately listed on Schedule A and Schedule B. This appears to be a matter of over reporting due to a technical glitch occurring during conversion. Thank you.
